

Unit 1

Present continuous , Present simple

He comes here quite often. The children love seeing him.

She is with us at the moment. We are loving/liking having her here. (emphasis temporary)

The app doesn't appear to work on my phone. (appear: state = seem)

He is currently appearing in a musical. (appear: action = take part)

She often appears in musicals. (appear: action = take part)

I agree with/believe/know/prefer you. (mental state and preferences)

I'm regretting my decision to give her the job. (not sure, recently start to think)

He is considering taking early retirement. (think carefully)

I suggest/acknowledge/advise you park outside the city and get bus to the center.(performatives)

I don't deny /I'm not denying taking the books. (negative)

We should/must/would advise you to drive carefully. (more tentative and polite)